Dear Church Family - Debbie and I are looking forward to arriving this Sunday to begin unpacking and getting ready for our ministry among and with you. Our first several days will be primarily filled with retrieving cars, settling into our home, and attending to the myriad details that accompany a move. We are excited to be there and look forward to what God has in store. However, moving is a taxing process; so we thank you for your understanding. In due time I will be announcing office hours and availability. Should you need to contact me in an emergency or about an urgent matter of church business, my cell phone is (805) 630-5866. In Christ's love -- Pastor Michael Brownfield
