Cost is $ 20.00 per individual for materials and certification. Attendees will be taught the basic fundamentals of working in a center that is responsible for distributing donated materials during a disaster in a local community. Adventist Community Services-Hawaii will be holding an important training session January 22nd, 23rd and 24th. Dr. Sung Kwon, Maitland DiPinto, and Charlene Sargent will be presenting a two part introduction about Adventist Community Services. One part will be on disaster response and the role ACS-H plays on the response to an event that has caused damage and destruction here in our islands. The second part relates to how we can assess the needs that are in our communities and match those needs to our abilities. Come and be inspired and informed of the opportunities that are all around us.

Outer island churches can send up to three individuals and the conference will pay 1/2 of the airfare, if attending all 3 days. Meals are covered from Friday supper until Sunday supper. Housing is limited so apply early.

Oahu churches can send individuals who are interested with no limit on members from a church family. Meals are provided, housing and transportation are not for Oahu churches.

If you are interested in attending, please contact Dave Rasmussen at acsh@hawaiiisda.com
